

This decision by the Court of Common Pleas of Lycoming County was not made available for Web publication. There are several possible reasons for this. Perhaps the opinion was not preserved by the Court office. Some decisions are private and may not be published. Under state law, decisions dealing with adoption or other matters involving juveniles are to be kept confidential. The Lycoming Law Association will strive to be as complete as possible in publishing opinions.